

Deepali Advani
Research Associate

Deepali Advani is an economist-planner with a specialization in Urban and Regional Planning from CEPT University (2013). She holds Bachelors and Masters degrees in Economics from St. Xavier's College, Mumbai (2009) and the University of Hyderabad (2011). She joined CUE in November, 2013 and is currently involved with "Local Accessibility Plans for Indian Cities" and documentation for the "Low Carbon Comprehensive Mobility Plan of Rajkot City". Her interests are urban economics and land-use transportation integration.