

URBAN HERITAGE FUTURES: REIMAGINATION FOR REGENERATION

The lecture series aims to inspire creative thinking towards devising heritage-led urban regeneration strategies. The series acknowledges aspects of UNESCO's 2011 Recommendation on the Historic Urban Landscape and the wider goals of sustainable development.

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

The lecture series is open to all CEPT students and members. The key themes of the five sessions, to be held on five alternate Wednesdays.

WEEK 3

1. MAPPING COUNTER NARRATIVES

Date: 17th August 2022

Time: 5:30 to 7:00 PM

WEEK 5

2. HERITAGE ECONOMICS

Date: 31st August 2022

Time: 5:30 to 7:00 PM

WEEK 7

3. URBAN HERITAGE AND CLIMATE RESILIENCE

Date: 14th September 2022

Time: 5:30 to 7:00 PM

WEEK 9

4. FUTURE DIRECTIONS

Date: 28th September 2022

Time: 5:30 to 7:00 PM

WEEK 11

5. ROADMAP FROM ISSUE IDENTIFICATION TO IMPLEMENTATION OF SOLUTIONS

Date: 12th October 2022

Time: 4:30 to 7:00 PM

Picture Credits: Jayashree Bardhan

Series Curator and Moderator:

Jayashree Bardhan, Visiting Faculty, Master's in Conservation and Regeneration